

Details about the Day

FRIDAY
MAY 8, 2026
Peaceful Demonstration
Taylor Park, Downtown
St. Albans
NOON

The rally will feature Bread & Puppet Theater, music and more, as well as a few folks who can speak directly to the illegal actions of ICE/CBP and how they threaten our neighbors and communities

Nonviolent Sit-In
Customs & Border Protection Offices
50 South Main St., St. Albans
2:00PM

The goal of the sit-in is to put pressure on ICE/CBP to respect the human and legal rights of all immigrants. Individuals participating in the action will knowingly risk arrest. The sit-in will adhere strictly to nonviolent principles, including nonviolence to people and property.

Additional demonstration participants are invited to express their support, legally, at a designated area adjacent to the sit-in. ☹

IMPORTANT!

The sit-in is limited to individuals who have participated in a nonviolent direct action training and who have joined an affinity group. You can sign up for an NVDA training by visiting our website.
